Notice to the person who issues or requests this subpoena

If this subpoena commands the production of documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or the inspection of premises before trial, a notice and a copy of this subpoena must be served on each party before it is served on the person to whom it is directed. Fed. R. Civ. P. 45(a)(4).

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45(c), (d), (e), and (g) (Effective 12/1/13)
(made applicable in bankruptcy cases by Rule 9016, Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure)

(c) Place of compliance.

(1) For a Trial, Hearing, or Deposition. A subpoena may command a person to attend a trial, hearing, or deposition only as follows:

- (A) within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; or
- (B) within the state where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person, if the person
  - (i) is a party or a party's officer; or
  - (ii) is commanded to attend a trial and would not incur substantial expense.

(2) For Other Discovery. A subpoena may command:

- (A) production of documents, or electronically stored information, or things at a place within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; and
- (B) inspection of premises, at the premises to be inspected.

(d) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena; Enforcement.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The court for the district where compliance is required must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction — which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees — on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises — or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

(i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the court for the district where compliance is required for an order compelling production or inspection.

(ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the court for the district where compliance is required must quash or modify a subpoena that:

- (i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;
- (ii) requires a person to comply beyond the geographical limits specified in Rule 45(c);
- (iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or
- (iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the court for the district where compliance is required may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

- (i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information; or

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(d)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

- (i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and
- (ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(e) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

- (i) expressly make the claim; and
- (ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information under seal to the court for the district where compliance is required for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(g) Contempt. The court for the district where compliance is required — and also, after a motion is transferred, the issuing court — may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena or an order related to it.

SO ORDERED.

ORDER DIRECTING PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS PURSUANT TO RULE 2004 OF THE FEDERAL RULES OF BANKRUPTCY PROCEDURE
TO COLUMBIA PRIVATE TRUST F/K/A PACIFIC PREMIER TRUST

THIS MATTER came before the above signed United States Bankruptcy Judge upon the Motion for Order Directing Production of Documents Pursuant to Rule 2004 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure to Columbia Private Trust, a division of Columbia Bank, f/k/a Pacific Premier Trust filed on December 11, 2025 by Brian R. Anderson, Chapter 7 Trustee [Doc. No. 372] (the “Motion”). After being noticed by the Court on December 12, 2025, that if no objections were filed on or before December 29, 2025, the Court would consider the Motion without a hearing, and that if objections were filed a hearing would be held on January 8, 2026 at 9:30 a.m. in the United States Bankruptcy Court, Courtroom 2, Second Floor, 101 South Edgeworth St., Greensboro, NC 27401. No party in interest objected to the Motion. After review of the Motion, the Court finds that cause exists to grant the Motion.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED THAT:

1. The Motion is hereby GRANTED; and
2. Columbia Private Trust, a division of Columbia Bank, f/k/a Pacific Premier Trust shall produce to counsel for the Trustee (Brian R. Anderson, Fox Rothschild LLP, 230 N. Elm St., Suite 1200, Greensboro, NC 27401) the documents described in Exhibit A of the Motion for examination and copying within fourteen (14) days after the entry of this Order or such other place as may be mutually agreed or such later date as may be designated by the Trustee.

EXHIBIT A
INSTRUCTIONS

In producing documents requested herein, you shall produce documents in full, without abridgment, abbreviation or expurgation of any sort.

All documents shall be segregated in accordance with the numbered and lettered paragraphs and subparagraphs herein.

All documents requested herein as to which you withhold production on the basis of a claim of privilege or statutory authority shall be listed in accordance with the procedure described in the instruction above and shall be identified by: (a) author(s); (b) addressee(s); (c) date; (d) type of document; (e) subject matter; (f) number of pages; (g) number of attachments or appendices; (h) indicated or blind copies; (i) all persons to whom shown or explained; (j) present custodian; and (k) factual or legal basis for claimed privilege, or other specific authority—statutory or non-statutory—providing the basis claimed for non-production.

All documents requested herein which have been destroyed, placed beyond your control, or otherwise disposed of shall be identified by: (a) author(s); (b) addressee(s); (c) date; (d) type of document; (e) subject matter; (f) number of pages; (g) number of attachments or appendices; (h) indicated or blind copies; (i) all persons to whom distributed, shown or explained; (j) date of destruction or other disposition; (k) reason for destruction or other disposition; (l) person authorizing destruction or other disposition; (m) person destroying or otherwise disposing of document; and (n) if not destroyed, person in possession of document otherwise disposed of.

“And” or “or” shall be construed in the conjunctive or disjunctive as necessary to make the interrogatory inclusive rather than exclusive.

The use of the singular form of any word includes the plural and vice versa.

The use of the word “including” shall be construed to mean “without limitation.”

In the event that any information, documents, materials, or items come to your attention, possession, custody, or control subsequent to the filing of your responses to these document requests, which materials or information are responsive to any of the foregoing requests, but which were not included in your initial response or production thereto, please supplement and furnish the additional information and materials as soon as possible.

DEFINITIONS

1. “Columbia”, “you”, or “your” refers to Columbia Private Trust, a division of Columbia Bank, f/k/a Pacific Premier Trust, and its present or former owners, officers, employees, managers, agents, attorneys, accountants, contractors, suppliers, investigators, consultants, representatives, and any other person (as defined herein) acting for or on behalf of or under direction or control of Columbia, and any successors or assigns of the persons or entity described in this definition.

2. "Chadley Capital" or "Debtor" refers to Chadley Capital, LLC, the debtor in Chapter 7 bankruptcy, case number 24-10170 filed in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Middle District of North Carolina, and its present or former owners, officers, employees, managers, agents, attorneys, accountants, contractors, suppliers, investigators, consultants, representatives, and any other person (as defined herein) acting for or on behalf of or under direction or control of Debtor, and any successors or assigns of the persons or entity described in this definition.
